EVPL Foundation holding Spring Book Sale

Evansville, IN, February 5, 2021 – The Evansville Vanderburgh Public Library Foundation will hold an alternative Spring Book Sale on Saturday, March 6 at EVPL Central.

A bag of ten books for $5 or a bag of ten DVDs for $10 will be available for purchase. EVPL team members will curate each bag prior to the event with titles selected based on genre. The sale will be cash only.

The book sale will be held by the Browning Room entrance of EVPL Central from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Individuals will select a bag based on their genre of interest and then pay for their bag or bags. There will be no browsing of materials.

“After the success of our Fall Book Sale, we are excited to once again offer an alternative for our book sale this spring,” said EVPL Foundation President Eric Weyer. “We look forward to safely providing this opportunity for those in our community who wish to support the library system while adding to their personal book, movie, and music collections.”

Those who wish to support the EVPL Foundation may make donations online.
