For Immediate Release

Readers are encouraged to participate in EVPL's Fall Reading Challenge

Evansville, IN, September 29, 2021 – The Evansville Vanderburgh Public Library invites all readers to participate in our Fall Reading Challenge: Fall into Reading, kicking off on Friday, October 1.

The challenge will last until Monday, November 15, and all ages are welcome to participate. Those without an EVPL card are also able to participate.

“With the new season, we hope our Fall Reading Challenge will give readers another opportunity to read for the love of reading, with an opportunity to win a prize,” said EVPL CEO-Director Scott Kinney.

Readers can track books read on a paper log that can be picked up from any EVPL location, by utilizing EVPL's Beanstack, or by calling 812.428.8200 to record books read.

Participants will be grouped by age: 0-5 years old, 6-8 years old, 9-12 years old, 13-17 years old, and 18 and older.

The challenge will conclude after reading 10 books. Three grand prize winners from each age group will be randomly drawn at the conclusion of the Fall into Reading challenge.
