

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Reading Challenge

Enjoy 3 types of materials that fit the prompts below. Get three in a row and turn in for a prize. Complete boxes in a row, column, or diagonal.

Read a Fiction book by a Black author you've never read before	Read a graphic novel by a Black author/artist	Watch a documentary about an event in Black History
Read a Coretta Scott King Award Winning Book	Attend a library program	Read a non-fiction book by a Black author
Watch a movie based on an event in Black History	Listen to a music album by a Black artist	Read a poetry book by a Black author

Name

Phone Number or Email

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Reading Challenge

Enjoy 3 types of materials that fit the prompts below. Get three in a row and turn in for a prize. Complete boxes in a row, column, or diagonal.

Read a Fiction book by a Black author you've never read before	Read a graphic novel by a Black author/artist	Watch a documentary about an event in Black History
Read a Coretta Scott King Award Winning Book	Attend a library program	Read a non-fiction book by a Black author
Watch a movie based on an event in Black History	Listen to a music album by a Black artist	Read a poetry book by a Black author

Name

Phone Number or Email

Celebrate BLACK HISTORY MONTH with EVPL

Black History Month Art Contest

Artwork due: Friday, Feb. 3 by 6:00 pm

Program: Friday, Feb. 17 | 5:00 pm

EVPL East

EVPL invites students from across the community to submit a piece of art that represents what Black History Month means to them. During the program, students will be able to present their art piece to the community. Guests can also enjoy music, snacks, and beverages while viewing the art pieces.

African American Read-in

Monday, Feb. 13 | 3:30 – 4:30 pm

EVPL North Park

Prepare your favorite passage by an African American author to share!

The Quilts of Gee's Bend

Tuesday, Feb. 28 | 6:00 – 7:00 pm

EVPL Oaklyn

In recognition of African American History Month, Jill Kinkade from the University of Southern Indiana will present "The Quilts of Gee's Bend".

Gee's Bend is a small, remote, Black community in Alabama, and the women of Gee's Bend are renowned quilters dating back to the early 20th century. The presentation will cover the history of the town, the quilts, and the women who contributed to African American art.

Celebrate BLACK HISTORY MONTH with EVPL

Black History Month Art Contest

Artwork due: Friday, Feb. 3 by 6:00 pm

Program: Friday, Feb. 17 | 5:00 pm

EVPL East

EVPL invites students from across the community to submit a piece of art that represents what Black History Month means to them. During the program, students will be able to present their art piece to the community. Guests can also enjoy music, snacks, and beverages while viewing the art pieces.

African American Read-in

Monday, Feb. 13 | 3:30 – 4:30 pm

EVPL North Park

Prepare your favorite passage by an African American author to share!

The Quilts of Gee's Bend

Tuesday, Feb. 28 | 6:00 – 7:00 pm

EVPL Oaklyn

In recognition of African American History Month, Jill Kinkade from the University of Southern Indiana will present "The Quilts of Gee's Bend".

Gee's Bend is a small, remote, Black community in Alabama, and the women of Gee's Bend are renowned quilters dating back to the early 20th century. The presentation will cover the history of the town, the quilts, and the women who contributed to African American art.