EVPL To Host Local Author Fair on Saturday

November 12, 2025 – A Local Author Fair will be held this Saturday, November 15, from 1-4 p.m. at EVPL Central. More than a dozen local authors are participating, offering book readings, writing resources, books for sale, and more.

“The Local Author Fair celebrates ingenuity and creativity, as well as the contributions these writers make to our local community and the overall community of writers,” said Allie Tucker, Assistant Librarian of Programming and coordinator of the event.

The event will take place in the Browning Rooms at EVPL Central, with scheduled readings in the nearby café space. The readings are scheduled every 15 minutes from 1:30 – 3:30.

Participating authors include Brent Abell, Susan Anslinger, J.L. Bundy, Kim Freeman, Dr. James MacLeod, Austin Maxheimer, Linda Reising, Mark Rigney, Cadyn Smithson, C.L. Stambush, Ashley M. Watson, Mark Williams, Kevin Wirthwein, and Mary Ellen Ziliak.

Authors will sell their books independently, each using their own payment method.

More information, including the authors’ bios and the schedule of their readings, is available at evpl.org/local.
